LOCAL MATTERS.

RAILROAD INCIDENT .- At the Blacksburg mine, on the Chesapeake and Ohio railroad near Charleston, W. Va., there is some disagreement between the miners and their employers. Saturday about 700 miners from lifferent mines near Charleston went to Blacksburg and caused a cessation of work. They went on a steamer, and many of them eturned on a railroad train. The conductor being powerless to oppose them, quietly accepted the situation. The train arrived at its destination on time and was not injured.

Accounts which reached the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad Company's office in this city yesterday represent that there have been no further disturbances at Blacksburg,
